PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

We expect all employees to always conduct themselves with the utmost professionalism. It is required that employees follow the policies and procedures of each facility they are working in. Every employee is further responsible for accepting accountability and responsibility for their own actions. Employees must exercise informed judgment and use individual competency and qualifications when accepting responsibilities, duties, consultations, and delegating nursing activities to others.

DRESS CODE

Employees are required to wear the appropriate nursing uniforms or scrubs to all their assignments along with appropriate footwear. Clogs, slip-ons, or any type of sandals are unacceptable. Please be advised that dress code varies per nursing home. All staff must maintain a clean well-kept appearance with good hygiene. Nails must be kept clean and of a short, neat length. Please refrain from wearing excessive jewelry, make-up and / or perfumes.

Employees may be paid for their orientation after completing their classroom training and buddy up shifts. Orientation consists of 1–2 days classroom training and 3-5 days buddy up. However, if the holiday hours exceed those extra overtime hours, then the employee will be paid time-and-a-half for the holiday hours. On rare occasions, a nursing home facility may pay both overtime and holiday hours worked in a week.

CANCELLATION & LATENESS

Dependability is expected and those employees who provide consistent, reliable service will be remembered, and the staffing coordinators will habitually contact you for scheduling. We do understand that extenuating circumstances do arise and a call-out may be unavoidable. If this should occur, it is your responsibility to contact the facility as soon as possible, and at least two hours before the start of the shift. Lateness is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. If you are running late, you must notify the facility. Persons with excessive lateness will be tracked and disciplinary action will be taken. Excessive lateness, cancellations or even one no-call no-show will result in disciplinary action, which may include termination.
